Renu Décor & Fashion

Renu Décor & Fashion is a family owned small business operated by Alicia and Kevin Stahl, a husband and wife team. Alicia has been running this business out of her home for a number of years and was doing rather good at it. Kevin, wanting his living room, family room, bedroom and kitchen back, suggested to her that they should open a real store. So they leased the property on County Road 2 and opened Renu Décor & Fashion Consignment Boutique. The store has been received by the Princeton, Zimmerman communities and has more than doubled in size in the last month. Alicia and Kevin decided it would be a good business decision to move the business to a larger building in the Business district of Princeton to accommodate the growing inventory as well as make the store convenient for more people to visit.

Renu Décor & Fashion has signed a lease on the old Radio Shack building, which is located at 403 1st Street between the Princeton Bible & Book Store and Minuteman Printing. They took possession of the building on May 15th and are planning to be open for business at their new location by June 1st. Until then you can visit their current store at 10842 313th Ave. NW, which will remain open until they move into the city.

Renu Décor & Fashion is a brand name consignment store which offers gently used, like new name brand clothing, jewelry, home décor, bath and beauty items, fashion accessories, as well as antique and vintage items. They are adding new inventory daily, so make sure you check out their store often. Or, if you are looking for something in particular, let them know and they will actually seek the item out and find it for you. No other store will actually act as your personal shopper.

Renu Décor & Fashion is not just another discount used clothing store. Renu Décor & Fashion is about community. They partner with local and regional artisans who supply the store with high quality handmade crafts and wares that have been constructed with a passion for the craft. These relationships provide Renu Décor & Fashion with high quality, functional, cost conscious items that cannot be equaled in quality by the big national stores. This old school approach to product procurement not only gives them better product offerings, but also strengthens and builds the local economy.

Renu does accept walk in consignments of clothing and household décor items without an appointment on consignments of fewer than 25 items. They will accept larger in-store consignments by appointment by calling 763-220-6029 or by visiting their website at www.renudecor.com. You can also follow them on Facebook or Twitter. They also have a text club that you can join by texting "renu" to 25827. They will accept clothing without defects, such as odors, tears or stains, and all clothing must be recently laundered. There is more information on their website as well as a partial accepted designer list, or you can always call the store for more information.

Renu Décor & Fashion also offers an in-home consignment program. You can simply call the store or go online and schedule an appointment and they will come to your home and pick up your items. This service is offered throughout the seven county metropolitan areas as well as Mille Lacs and Isanti Counties. This service saves you the time and energy of lugging your items into the store as well as offers Renu Décor & Fashion shoppers the highest quality and broadest selection of name brand clothing and décor items of any similar store. Kevin calls this practice "local importing." He said he imports much of Renu Décor's clothing and household décor items from the affluent metro communities where a lot of high priced under used items are originally purchased. Alicia and Kevin invite you to stop in and take a look.

Kris Klein named Honorary Chamber Member

Kris Klein, a student at Princeton High School, was recently invited to be an honorary member of the Chamber of Commerce.

Kris stated, "I thought this was a wonderful opportunity to become more involved with the business side of Princeton along with helping resolve some issues throughout the community. When I found out I had the opportunity to be a part of the Chamber of Commerce I knew it was a great opportunity but I wasn't sure what it was all about. After going to one of the meetings and talking to a few board members I realized just how amazing the Chamber of Commerce and the members are. It was humbling to see just a small portion of the business men and women of Princeton and how they are not just worried about how their business is doing or how big their business is. In fact, this wasn't the case at all. I realized that they really do care about not only their business but about the everyday people in the community. It was also great to see that they care about the future, the kids and students like me.

I would like to thank Scott Berry and all the outstanding members of the Chamber of Commerce for making this wonderful opportunity and experience possible. I would also like to thank Heather Sorenson and all the staff at Princeton High School, along with all of my family members."

Kris Klein is a junior at Princeton High School and is involved in NHS and the high school band program, which he plays the trumpet in. He loves four wheeling, fishing, hunting and any other outdoor activities. Kris has lived in Princeton his entire life and he enjoys the small piece of paradise that he lives on just east of Princeton. Kris' parents own 170 acres out there and they have a small cattle farm. He and his dad also deer hunt and duck hunt out there. The family also has three lake lots in Northern Minnesota where they are always doing something on the water whether it is tubing, kneeboarding, waterskiing or fishing.

Electrical Service Upgrades

One of the main services that Hansen Power & Lighting offers is electrical service upgrades.

The most common upgrades for homeowners are from fuses to breakers or from 100 amp to 200 amp.

Many older homes still have existing fuse boxes instead of circuit breakers. Fuses are just plain out of date and most fuse panels consist of a 60A main with very few branch circuit options. If you are planning to remodel or add an appliance such as air conditioning, a heat pump or you just want more power in your garage for tools, the first thing you need to consider is upgrading to a breaker panel.

A lot of new homes built in the last 20 years were built to bare minimum specifications with unfinished basements, no central air conditioning and were wired to minimum code requirements with 100 amp 20 space panels. This leaves very little room for future electrical items such as air conditioning, hot tubs, saunas, air compressors, electric space heaters, welders, large power tools, swimming pools, out buildings, garbage disposals or even a lack of power for Christmas lighting.

Before purchasing any of the above mentioned items or beginning an addition, basement finish or out building construction, the service size and available circuit spaces needs to be taken into consideration. In most cases a 100 amp service will prove over time to be insufficient for your needs and wants.

Contact Dale Hansen, Hansen Power & Lighting, at 612-369-5991 for any electrical questions.

Grow Your Business with the NEW Chamber Business Networking Group

The Princeton Area Chamber of Commerce is in the process of organizing a Business Networking Group for its members. The Business Networking Group is being formed to assist chamber members in growing their businesses through recognition and referrals, building relationships with other businesses, and helping themselves and others succeed. The group has met on two occasions to vote for officers and to discuss what benefits the members would like to achieve. It had been decided that the Business Networking Group will meet the first and third Tuesday of each month from 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. The meetings will be held in the conference room at Berry Law Offices, located at 206 South Rum River Drive, until further notice. 28,060

Number of new cancer cases reported in Minnesota in the year 2012.

Number of new cancer cases estimated to be reported in the year 2013.

Join us to help finish the fight.

Sixty years ago, 1 out of 3 people diagnosed with cancer survived at least 5 years. Today, thanks in part of the American Cancer Society, 2 out of 3 will survive. Let's make it 3 out of 3.

I challenge YOU to finish the fight!

Dear friends of Princeton Chamber of Commerce,

Your neighbors and friends have either helped organize the Mille Lacs County Relay for Life, or they have participated in the event as a team member. This year I challenge the Princeton Chamber of Commerce members to join us in this amazing event by entering a relay team.

The relay is a 12-hour event, beginning on Friday evening of August 2nd at 6:00 p.m., lasting until 6:00 a.m. on Saturday morning of August 3rd. It will take place at the Princeton High School track and the objective is to have one team member on the track at all times. One reason the relay lasts overnight is because the ugly truth that cancer never sleeps. The purpose of the event is to raise money and awareness to help put an end to cancer. The event is personally rewarding to all who participate for reasons of giving others hope, showing support, and providing strength to all our loved ones who are impacted by cancer. Another added benefit is the amazing sense of community you will feel when you see so many of your friends and neighbors band together for a common cause.

I challenge you to help finish the fight against cancer. To sign up, go to relayforlife.org and find your event "Mille Lacs County Relay for Life." For additional information contact Terri Kroll at 763-439-5172 or terri.kroll@hotmail.com

Nikki's is a new salon in town that is owned by Nikki Elton, a native of Princeton, located at 410 South Rum River Drive just south of Holiday Gas Station. The 1930's house was completely remodeled inside by Nikki's brother, Nate Cok, of NC Contracting of Princeton. During reconstruction he tried to keep the old charm and character as much as possible. When you walk into Nikki's you see the tall ceilings, windows with the original woodwork and old fashioned lace curtains.

Nikki's specializes in hair, nails and skin care. The services offered for hair are hair cuts, colors, foils, perms, clarifying treatments, deep conditioning treatments and waxing. The services offered for nails are gel polish, acrylic and manicures. Nikki's also offers facial treatments and carries a complete line of gl therapeutic products and can make you recommendations according to your skin type or skin problem you may have.

Nikki, along with her assistant Tammy Reiss, have a combined total of 36 years experience in the field of Cosmetology.

In addition, Nikki's offers the service of Aromatherapy & Massage by Maria Werner, another native of Princeton, who has 12 years of massage and bodywork experience. ## A Turn of Events is coming to The Princeton Speedway

Ashly Keifer plans craft and vendor fairs for community events. She opened her business, A Turn of Events, earlier this year. Keifer has a background in direct sales and she handles the advertising for all of her events.

On nights the Princeton Speedway is running races, A Turn of Events will be there with vendors, make sure to stop in Princeton Speedway and join the fun! Businesses and direct sales companies can register for this and other events at www.aturnofevents.net. If the show is already full, there will not be a link to register. A Turn of Events limits the number of booths selling the same thing, so there is a wide variety of items.

Keifer has helpful tips on what vendors should bring to their booth listed on the A Turn of Events website. Vendors who do not have a table, chairs, or a tent can rent them additional charge. After a show, customers can get information about the vendors they saw by going to the website and clicking on the event they attended. .

Companies and organizations who would like A Turn of Events to plan their next event can contact Keifer by going to the website, emailing info@aturnofevents.net or calling 763-439-7856.

Civic Betterment Club

Special thanks to the Lions who helped Judy Barnes, Gloria Bromberg, Maureen & Allen Gould, and Char & Wally Kramersmeier bring items to the Depot for our garage sale last month. Others who helped throughout the sale were Bonnie Belair, Jan Dery, Betty & Glenn Jensen, Sharon Leider, Minnie Lofboom, Betty McAlpine, Pam Schlagel, Marilyn Stewart, Joanne Vork and Dawn Wallenfelsz. We appreciate all who stopped at our sale as the weather did not cooperate. We did raise a portion of the funds needed to purchase a commercial stove for the Civic Center, and we will continue with this fundraising project.

Lots of activities are planned for our community this summer. June 4 is the American Red Cross Blood Bank at Trinity Crossings and Tuesdays in the Park starts June 4. The Rum River Festival will start June 9 and we plan to honor Gloria Bromberg, our Distinguished Club Member, at the Distinguished Awards Banquet on June 12. Congratulations to Gloria as she is a dedicated club member and a volunteer who will help whenever and wherever needed, plus she has dealt with radiation. Gloria is our Member-At-Large, and helps with the Blood Bank, Santaville, Wine Tasting, and Garage Sales, plus she is on the Calling & Craft Committees. She will be in the parade on June 13, so give her a shout! We also plan to be at the Craft Fair on June 15, so stop by to check out the Rada Knives that will be on sale. Pioneer School starts June 17. Registration is through Community Ed, so check out page 36 of their summer brochure for details.

We will not have monthly meetings during the summer, but June is "President's Choice" month for a fun outing. Judy Barnes has chosen Captain's on Long Lake (763-444-5897) to have lunch on June 18 at 11:00 a.m. We will meet at 10:30 by the Depot Museum to share rides. Everyone is welcome to join us, just call Judy Barnes (763-389-5855) for reservations or questions.

Changing Jobs? Don't let your 401(k) slip away

Today's job market is more transitory than ever. And, as more and more individuals switch jobs, they begin to wonder what they should do with the money they have accumulated in their employer-sponsored retirement plans such as their 401(k) plans. The good news for 401(k) plan participants is that your retirement plan assets are very portable so you may be able to keep your existing 401(k) plan assets in a tax-deferred environment.

The trick is to resist the urge to use the monies. After tucking money away in your 401(k) for quite some time, you may be tempted to use it to treat yourself to a new car or some other indulgence. Because it could literally take years to replace your existing 401(k) funds, you should think carefully before prematurely taking money from your retirement savings.

A hasty withdrawal decision by someone under age 55 could easily wipe out a third of your 401(k) assets. If you decide you want a lump-sum withdrawal paid directly to you, the 401(k) plan trustee must withhold 20% for federal income tax and, if you do not attain age 55 prior to the end of the year in which you separate from service, the trustee must also withhold an additional 10% premature distribution penalty. So you will receive a net payout of 70 to 80% of your existing 401(k) plan account balance. After age 55, however, the premature distribution penalty is no longer imposed if your withdrawal is prompted by your separation from service with the employer sponsoring the plan.

Of course, if you choose to take a withdrawal, you may, within 60 days of the distribution, subsequently decide to deposit it into an IRA as a qualified rollover. However, for the withdrawal and re-contribution to be a tax neutral event, you would need to deposit the gross distribution amount into the IRA, which means you need to replace the withheld monies with funds from another resource such as your personal savings.

If you can resist the urge to take a withdrawal when you change jobs, you are one step closer to making a distribution decision that will preserve your hard-earned money. To be in the best position to make an informed decision, you should consider other options available for your existing 401(k) assets, such as:

- leave your assets in the 401(k) plan,
- transfer your assets to a new employer's 401(k) or retirement plan, or
- roll your assets into an IRA.

Your 401(k) plan account balance represents your savings; therefore, it is important to make informed distribution decisions that will preserve your hard-earned money. To learn more about the portability of your 401(k) assets, or for more information or for more information on preserving your 401(k) assets and 401(k) retirement planning strategies based on your particular situation, please contact a Financial Advisor for a complimentary consultation.
